

ANDREW

STACK

P.O. Box 455 Park

City, Utah 84060

astack@steepproductions.com

001.435.513.1281

Winner of Two Regional Emmy Awards for Iraq War Coverage

“Here's a guy that gets up before me, goes to bed around 2AM and does all the work by himself... all while fighting one hell of a nasty flu bug. I should know, I share a room with him and his coughing at night is as loud as the mortar rounds they drop on us.”

- Staff Sergeant Joe Cornell (142nd Military Intelligence Battalion)

Iraq Correspondent

Fox News Channel 2004–06

Reported LIVE from Iraq for Fox News Channel and Sky News in London as well as Fox News Radio; embedded with U.S. and British troops deployed around Iraq. Taught Fox personnel how to edit video on “final cut pro” and how to transmit stories using an R-BGAN satellite modem.

Embedded Iraq Correspondent

KTVX-TV ABC Affiliate 2003

Shot, produced, edited, and reported stories from Iraq; feeding video back to the States using an R-BGAN satellite modem. Directly credited by management for contributing to largest ratings increase in 25 years.

Washington, D.C. Correspondent

CBS Newspath 2002

Provided extensive live coverage of buildup to the Iraq war for CBS affiliates around the United States.

Background

- Co produced three documentaries on the Iraq War (R.E.M.F., FahrenHYPE 9/11 & Operation Homecoming).
- BS Degree, Mass Communication/Broadcast Journalism University of Utah 1992.
- U.S. Army 1985-89 (Airborne School-Fort Benning, Georgia) National Honor Guard-Washington, DC.
- Attended 2-year Russian Academy while living in the U.S. Embassy in Moscow.
- Certified Emergency Medical Technician, Utah 1992-95.
- Certified alpine ski instructor, snowboard instructor and mountain bike guide.
- Certified S.C.U.B.A. diver.